To Be Altered

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Scientists are planning a delicate maneuver Friday morning designed to alter Mariner 4's course so it will pass within 8,600 miles of Mars next July.

If it's successful, the July fly-by will be advanced three days.

The midcourse maneuver will be accomplished by igniting a small rocket briefly aboard the Mars probe.

eral thousand of them, to the court in Carson City.

Laxalt could give no precise estimate of how many votes he thought he could gain. He said there probably will be several hundred seriously disputed before the court.

Cannon has contended that recount boards in White Pine and Nye counties improperly rejected more than 150 Cannon ballots.

The recount, started in some
